1750

The Paul-School Round Hand

IN TWO BOOKS

The one shewing the Strong Round hand y^e other the mixt round hand

Round hand as they are taught by y^e Author. At y^e Hand and Pen in S^t Pauls Church yard

Sold by y^e

Aa Bb Bb Cc Dd Dd Ee Ii Ff Ff Gg Gh Gh Ht Hy Ii Kk Kk Ll
Mm Nn Nn Oo Pe Py Pt Qu Rr Rs Ss St St Tt Vv Ww Xh Xx Yy Zz
Ayres

Aa au an bi bl by to rr ct et dy dd et ey of ff fr gh gh gh gh i in kk kt ll ll ly lt mp nu nr nc off pl spy st qu rer ty wh wh xyz
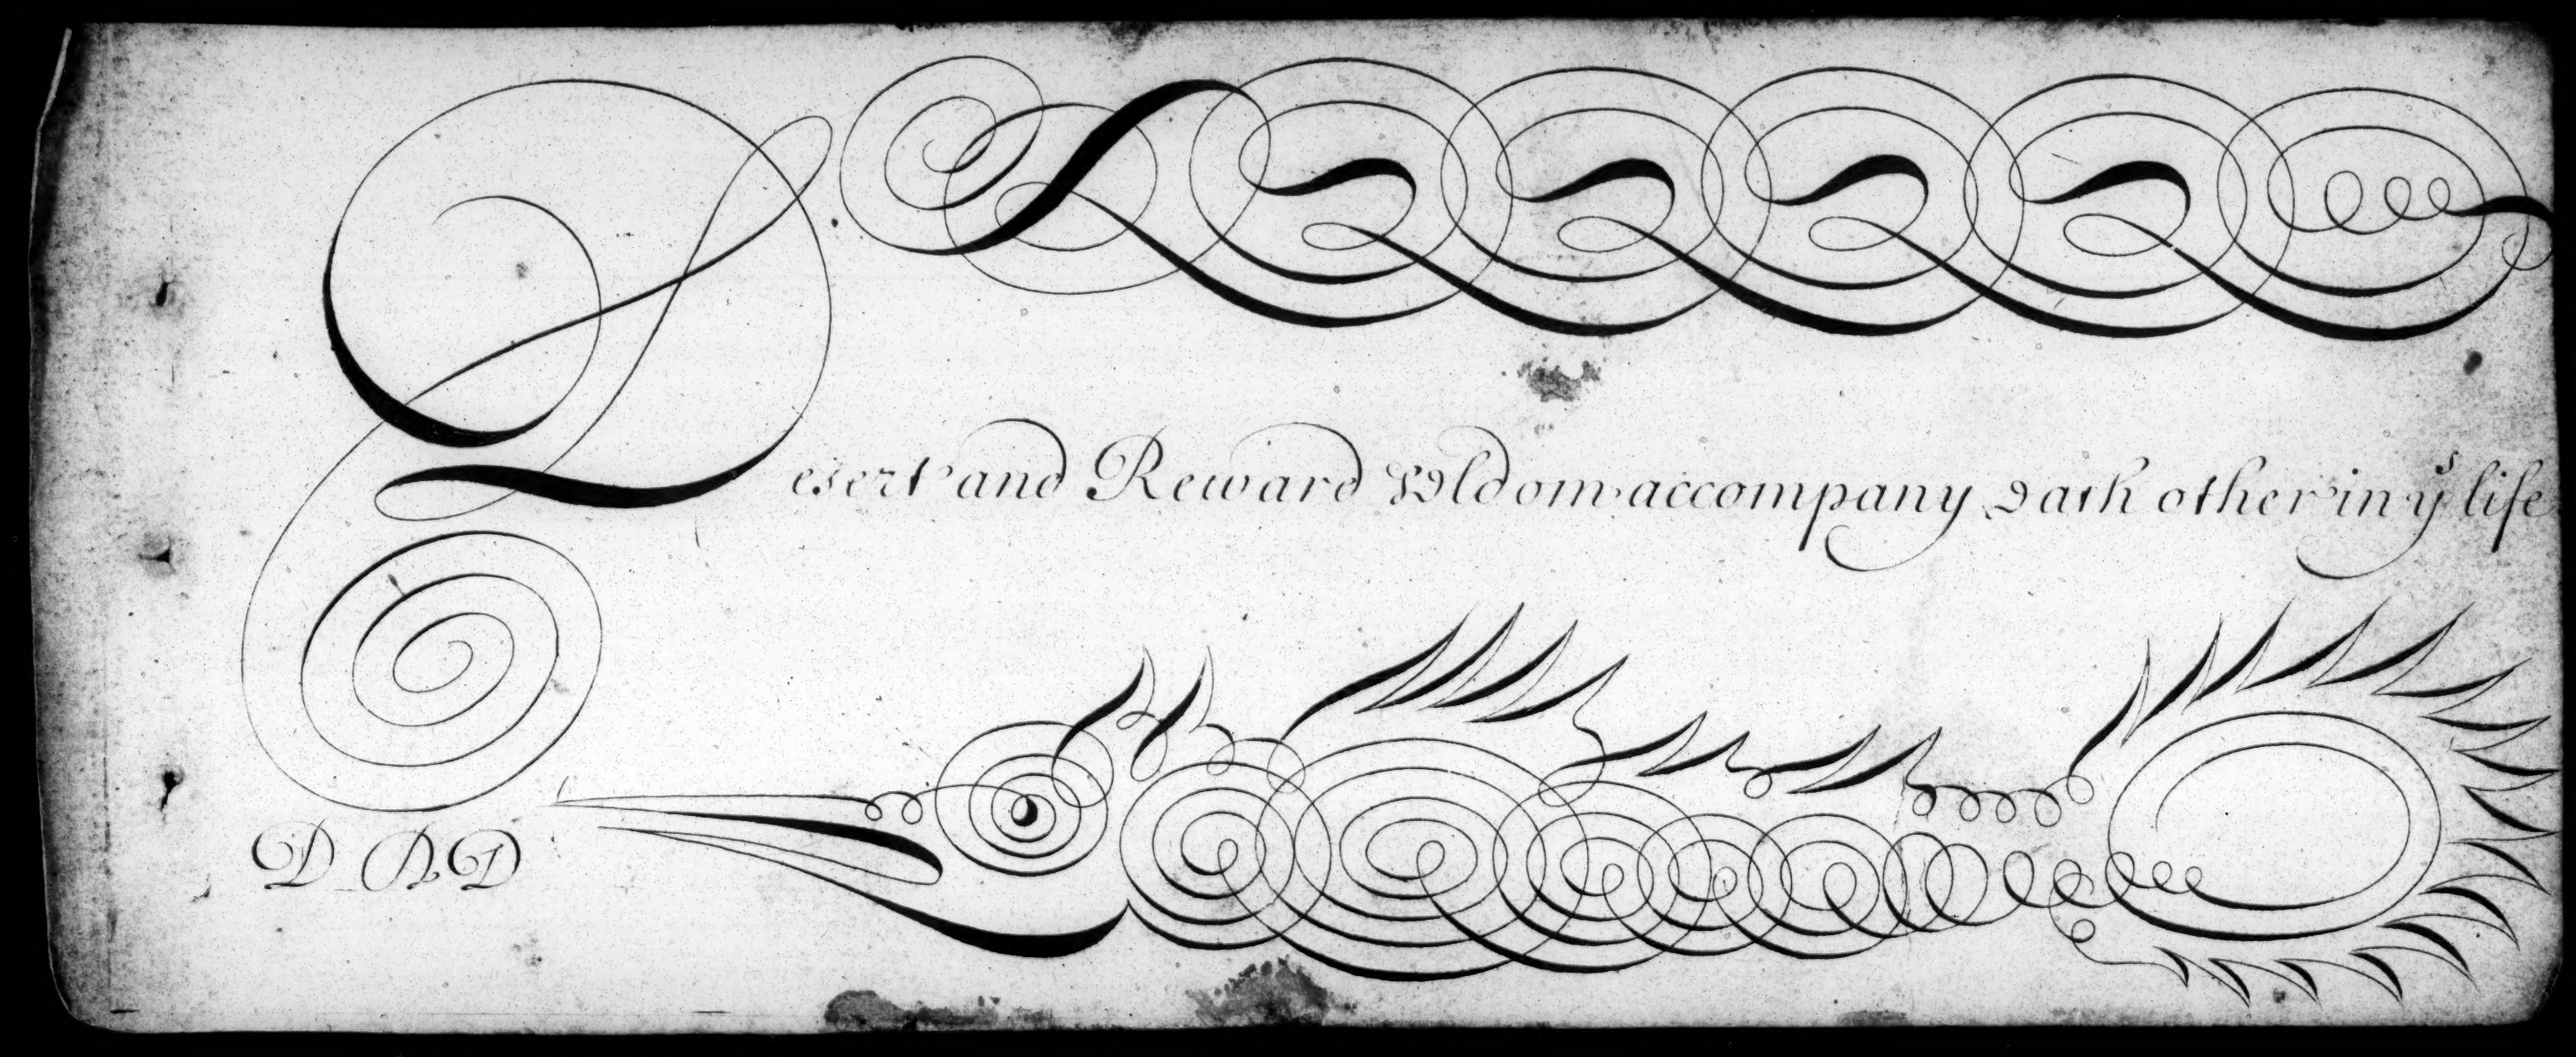
Ayres

A wise man measures time by improvement not by its duration.
A A A

By commiting extravagant actions Men come to ruin & destr.
B B B

Contempt provokes Superiors as much as actual injuries. Ayres.

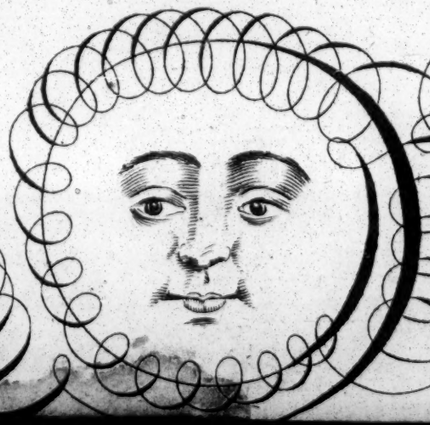


Desert and Reward seldom accompany each other in y^e life
D. A. D

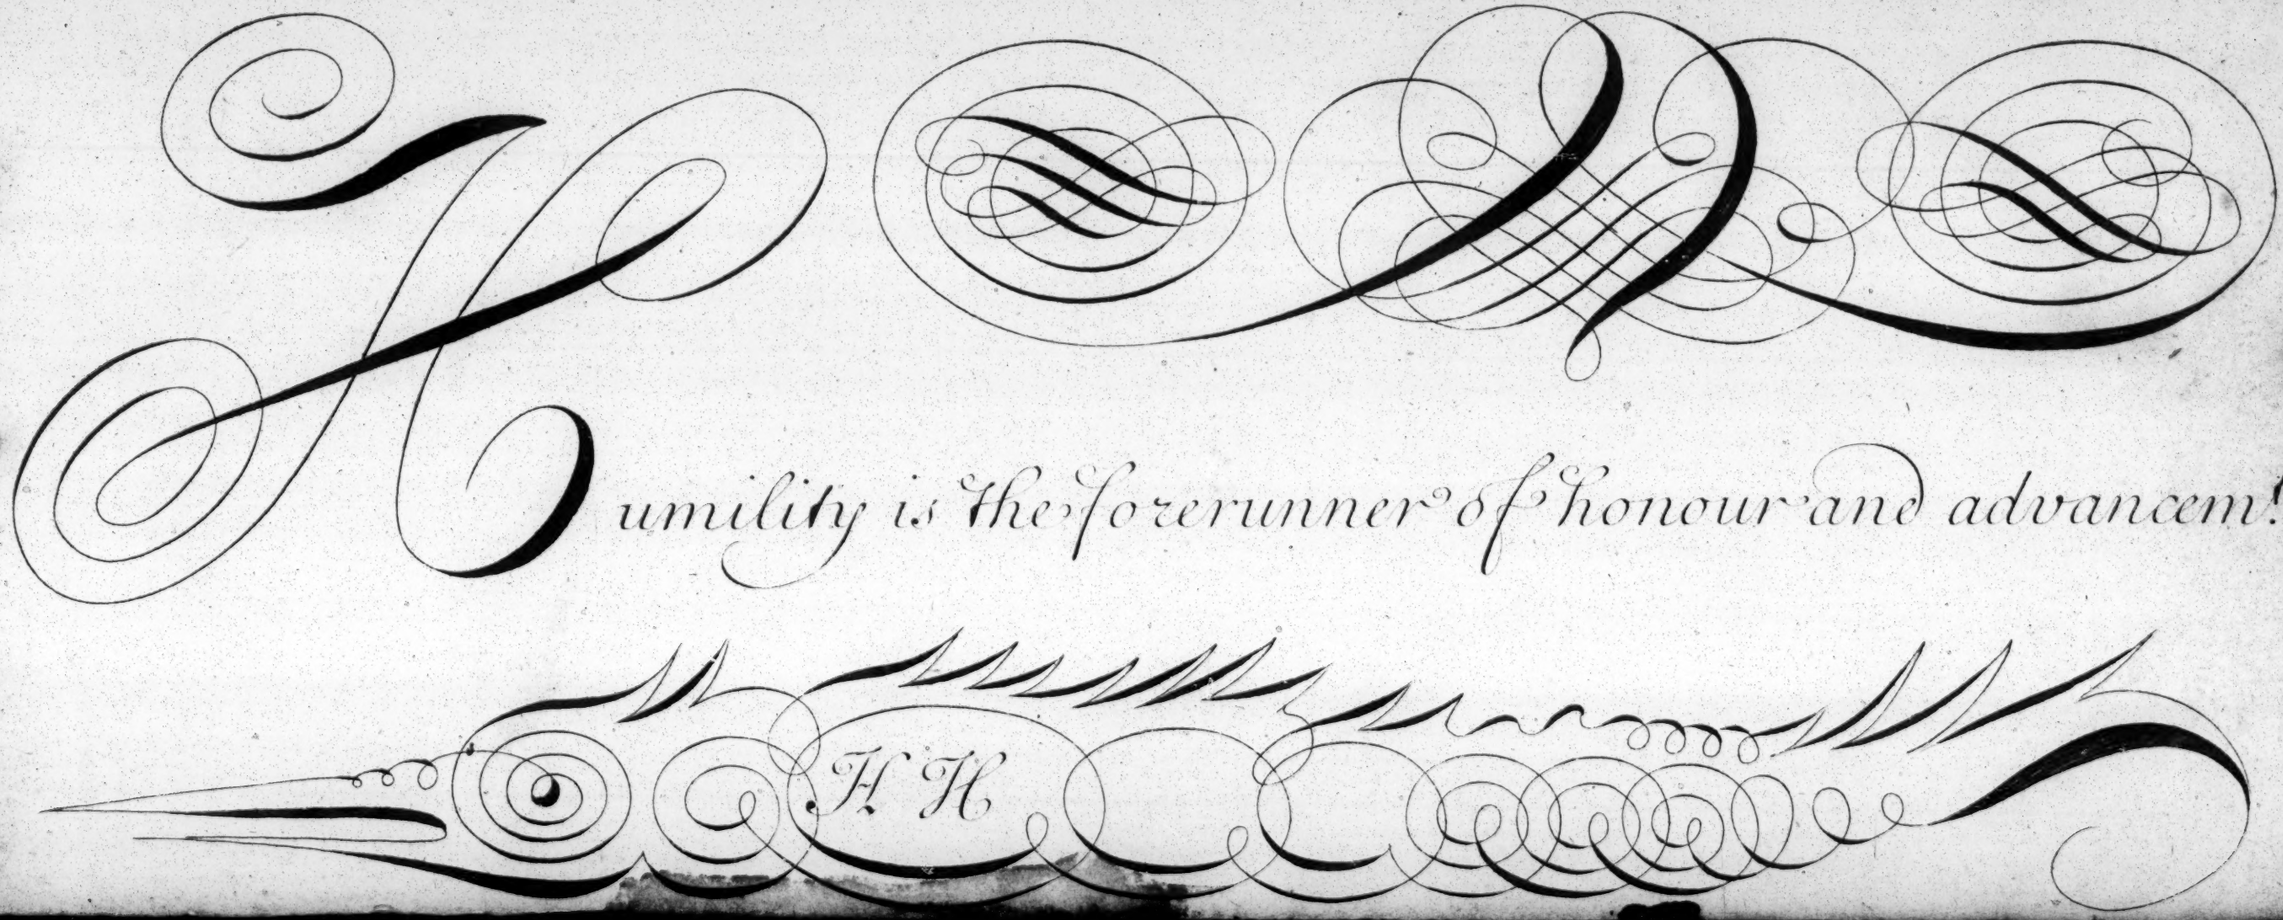
Excellency Vile, on a lofty Throne; above ye reach of every idle Drone.

For Mr. Samuell Connings by Merch.t in Amsterdam

F

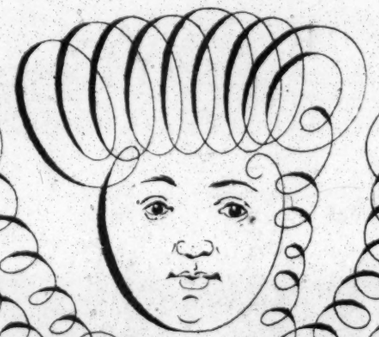


Good manners Grace and truth are ornaments to Youth.
GG

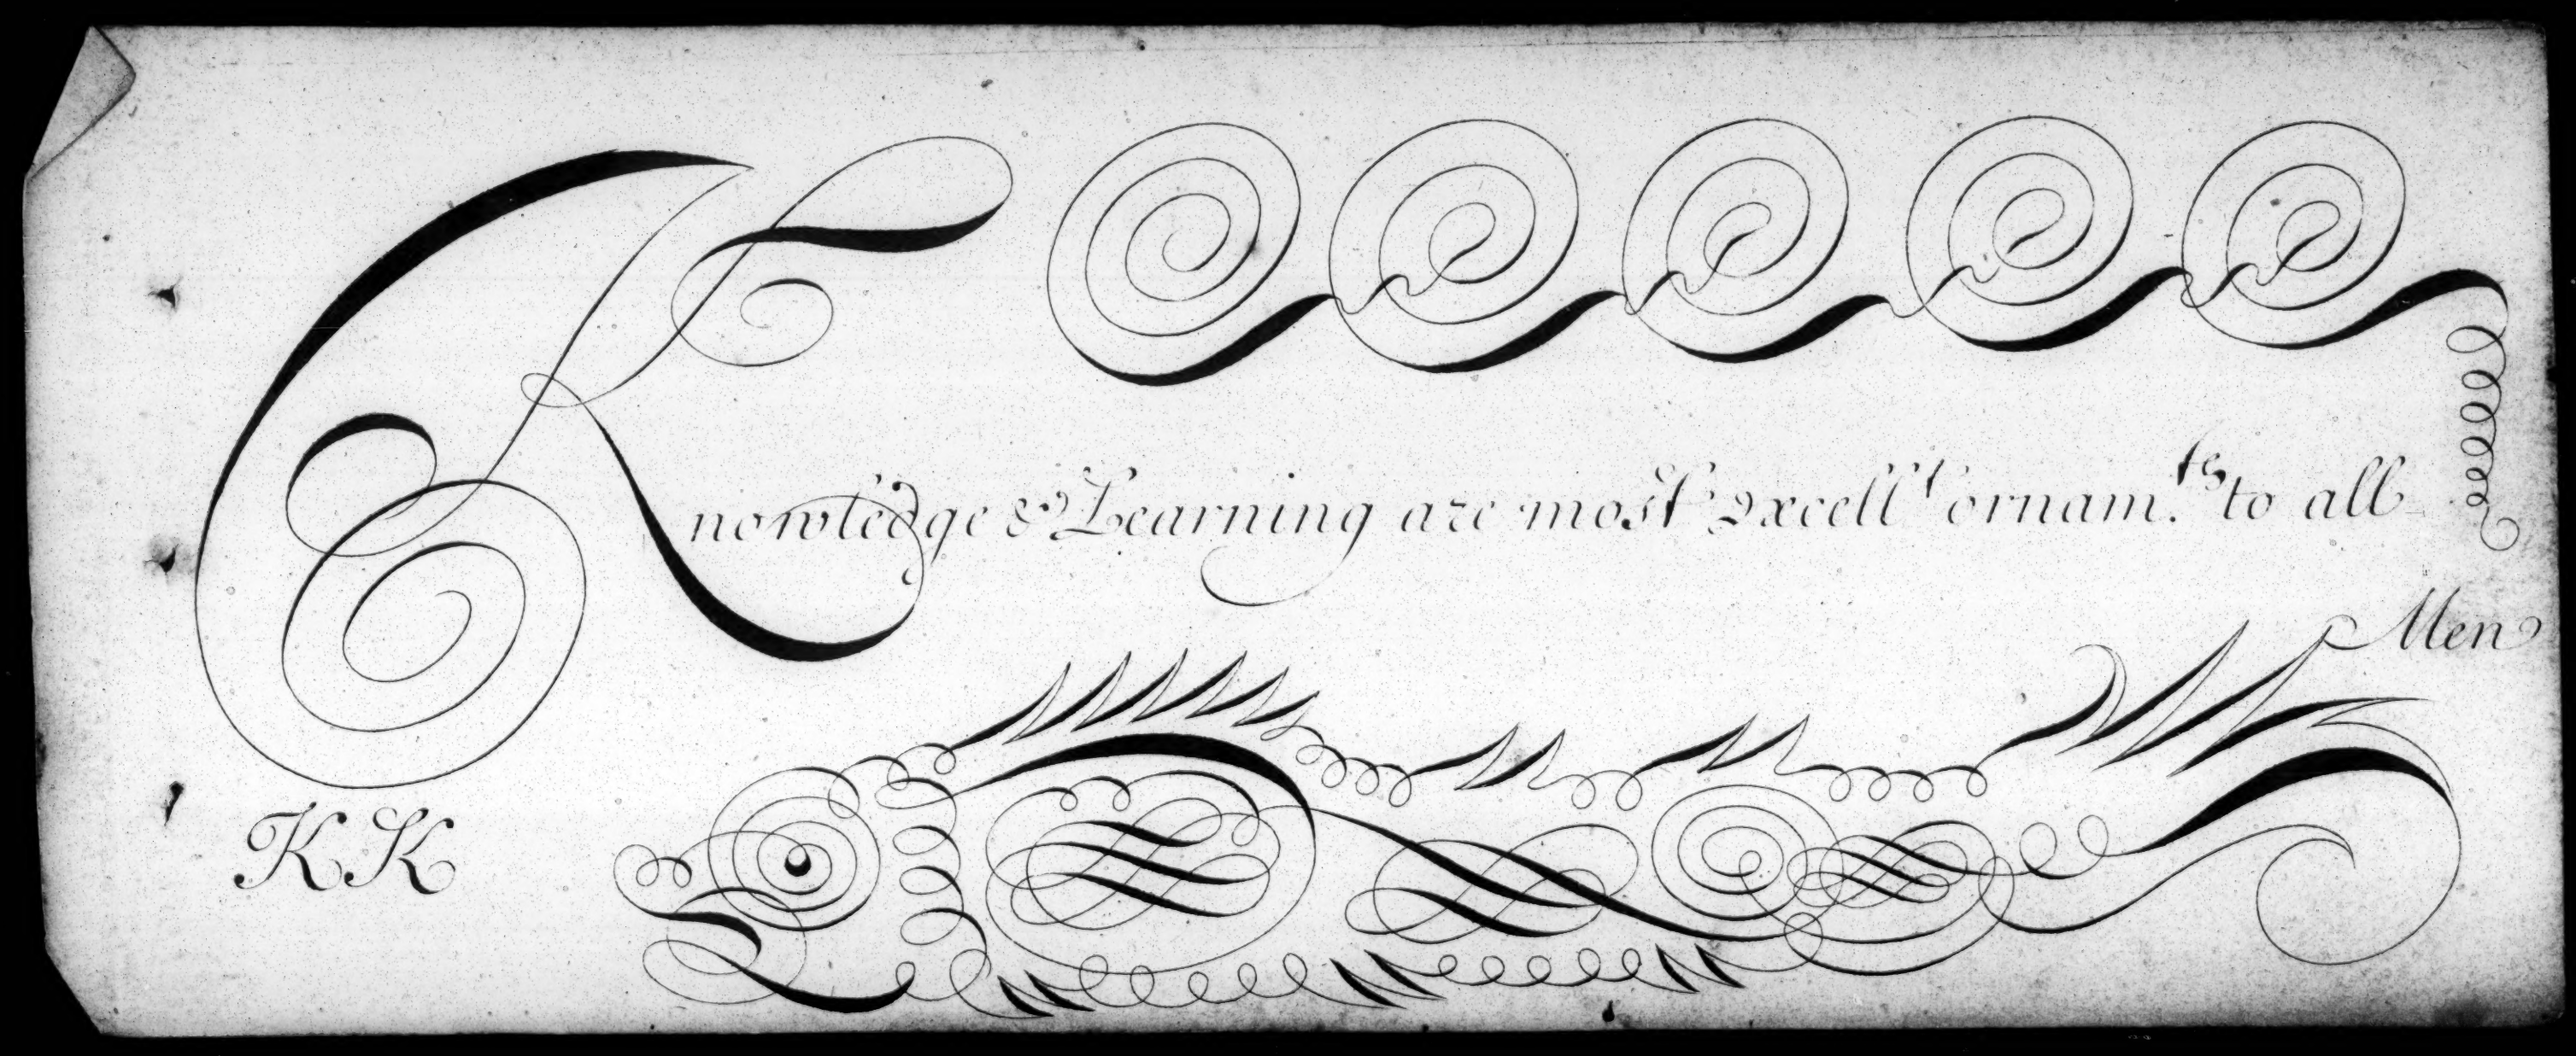


Humility is the forerunner of honour and advancem.t
H. H

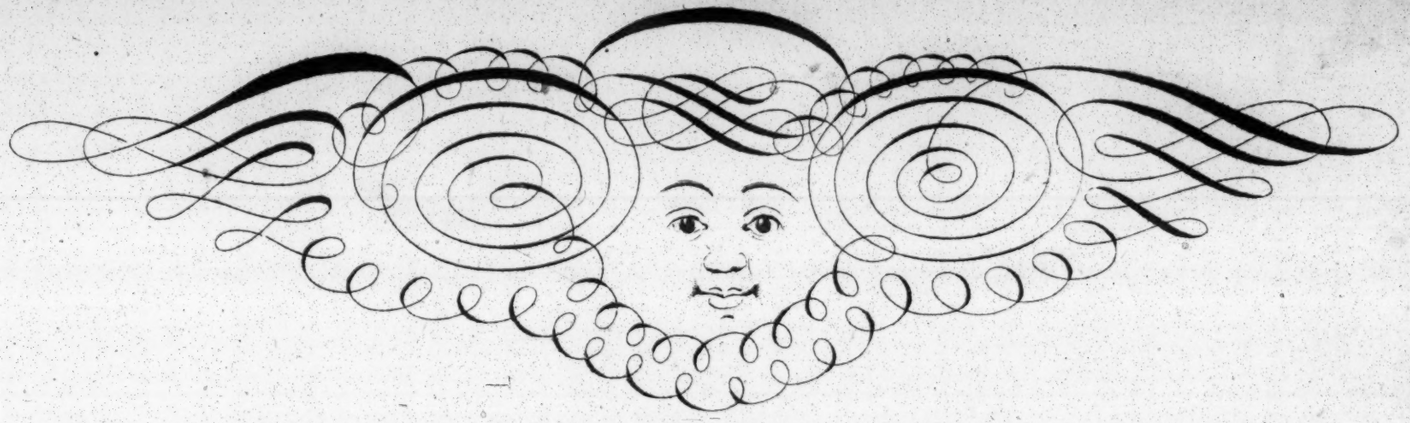
Intemperance is y^e Cause & foundation of most diseases.



J J J



Knowledge & Learning are most excell.t ornam.ts to all Men
K K



Learning is an ornament commendable in men of honour

L.L.L.

Many men tormented lye in hopes to live & fear to dye
M M M

Nature is contented with little but y^e cravings of^s Luxury are boundlesse

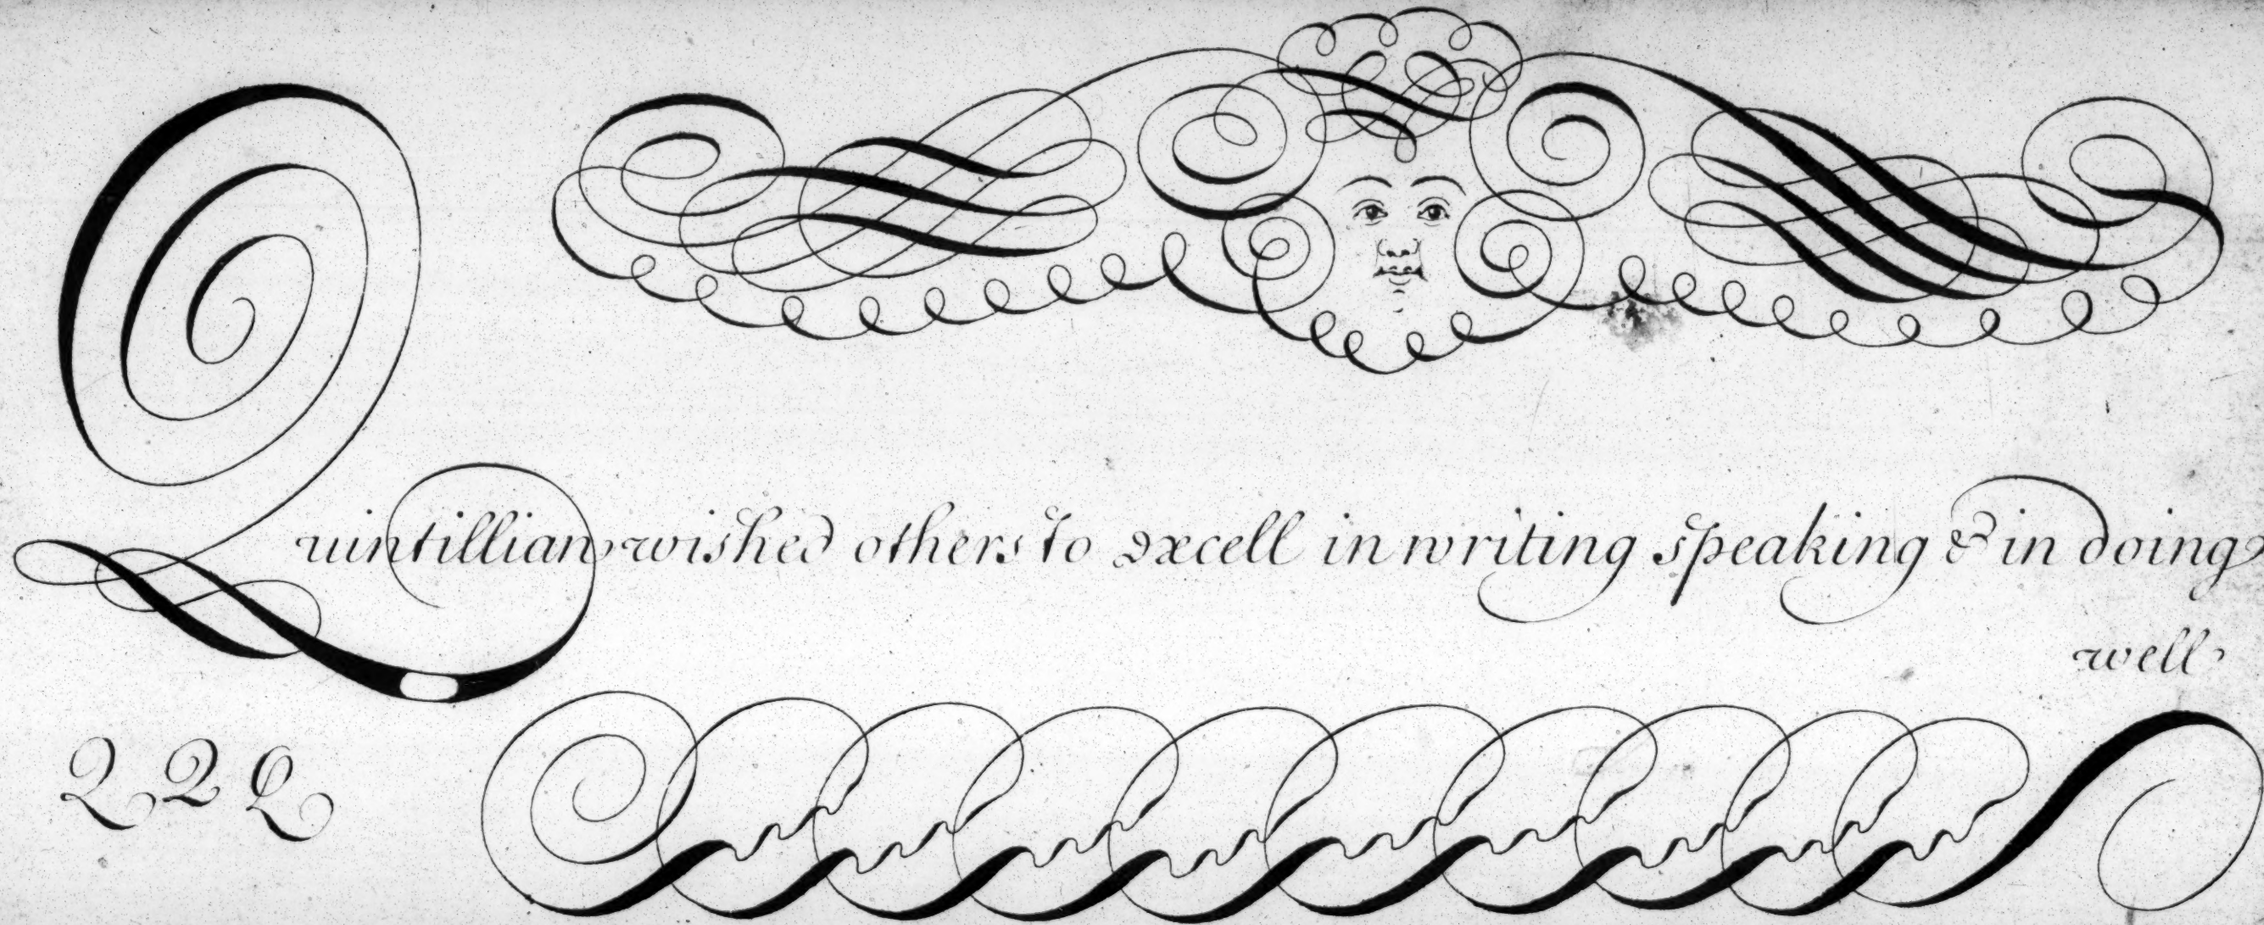
N N

Of all commendable Arts, fair Writing is none of the meanest.

Praise and commendation give encouragement to the Ingenious.



Quintillian wished others to excell in writing speaking & in doing well
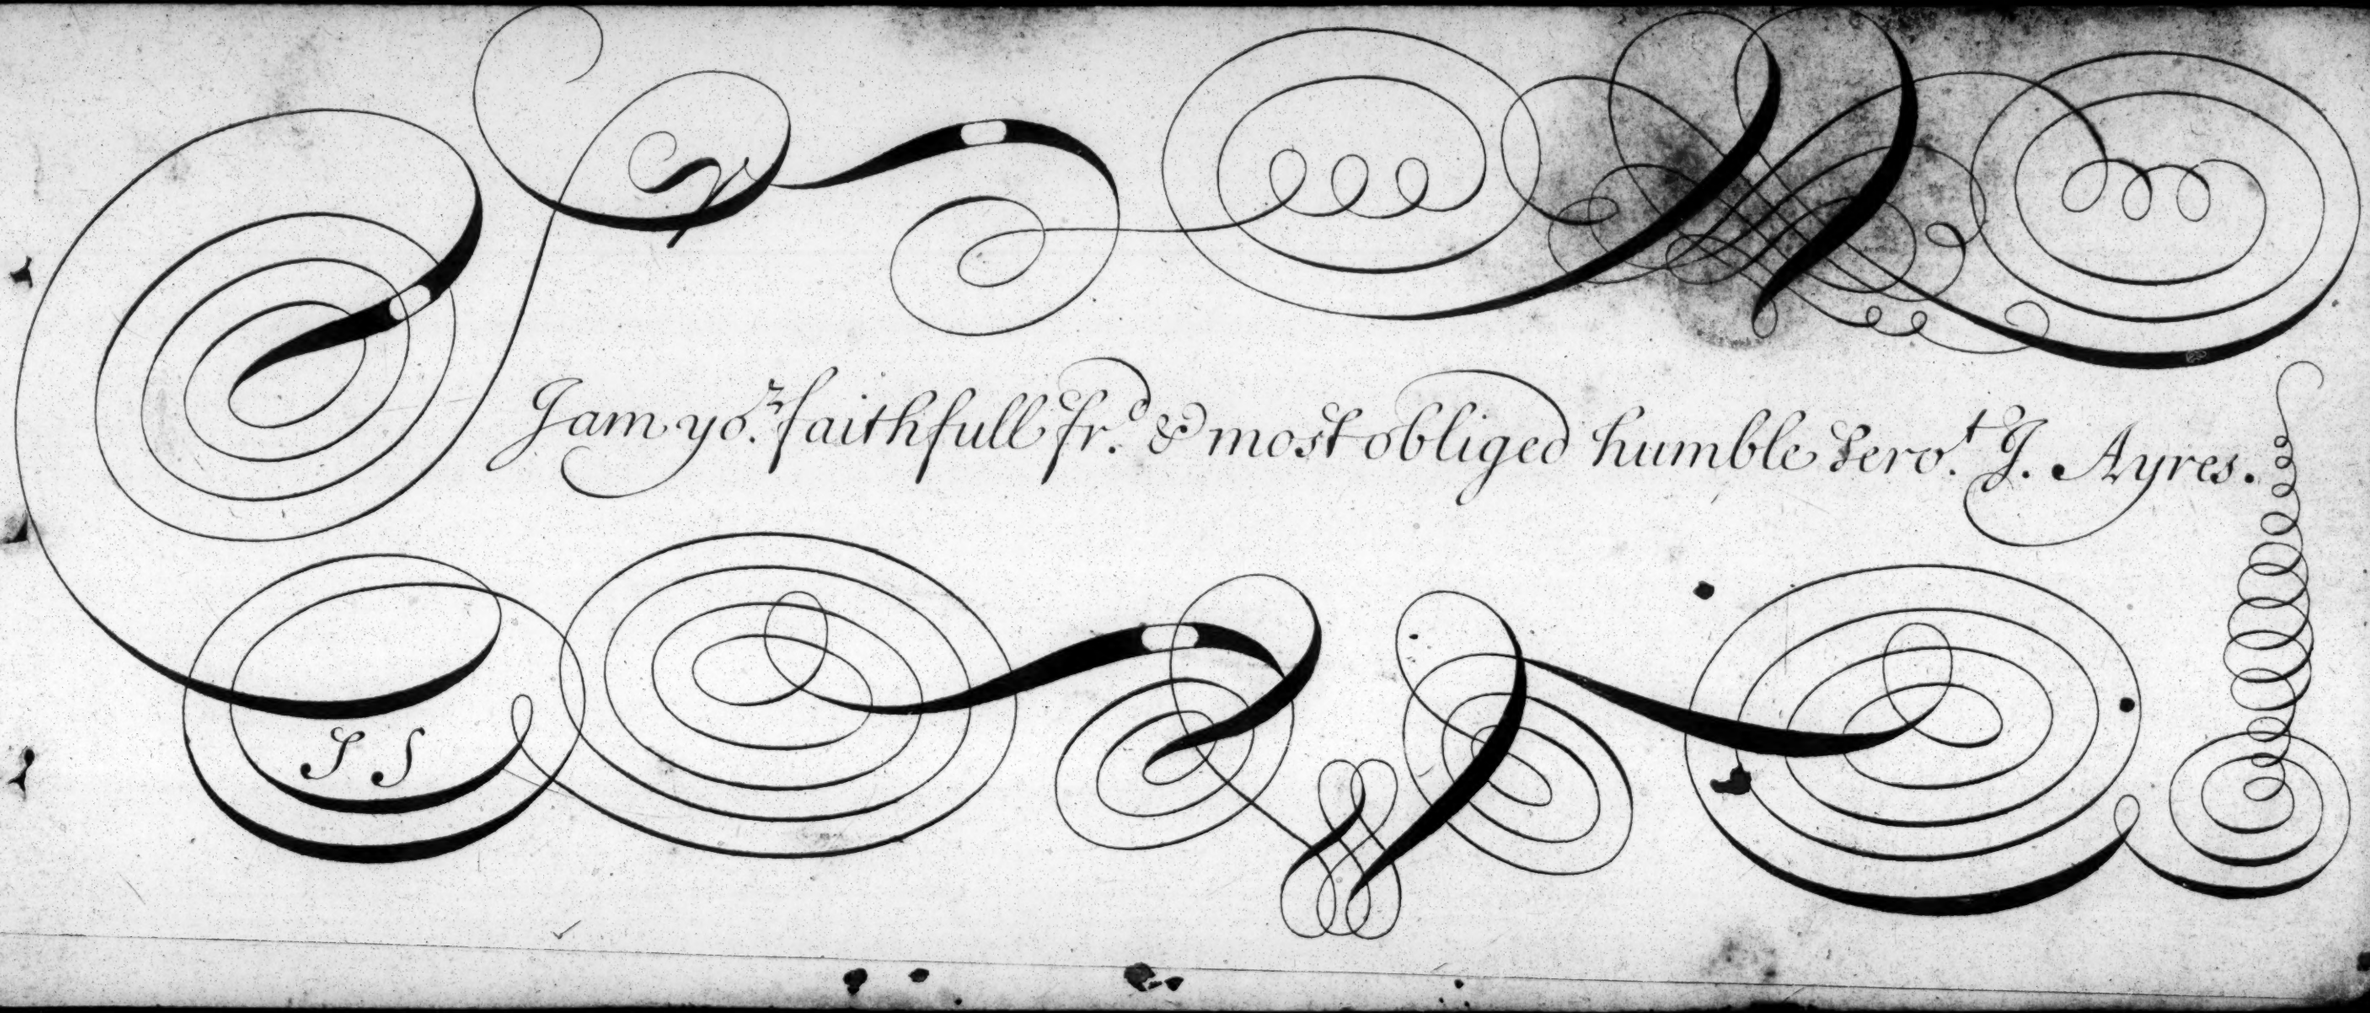
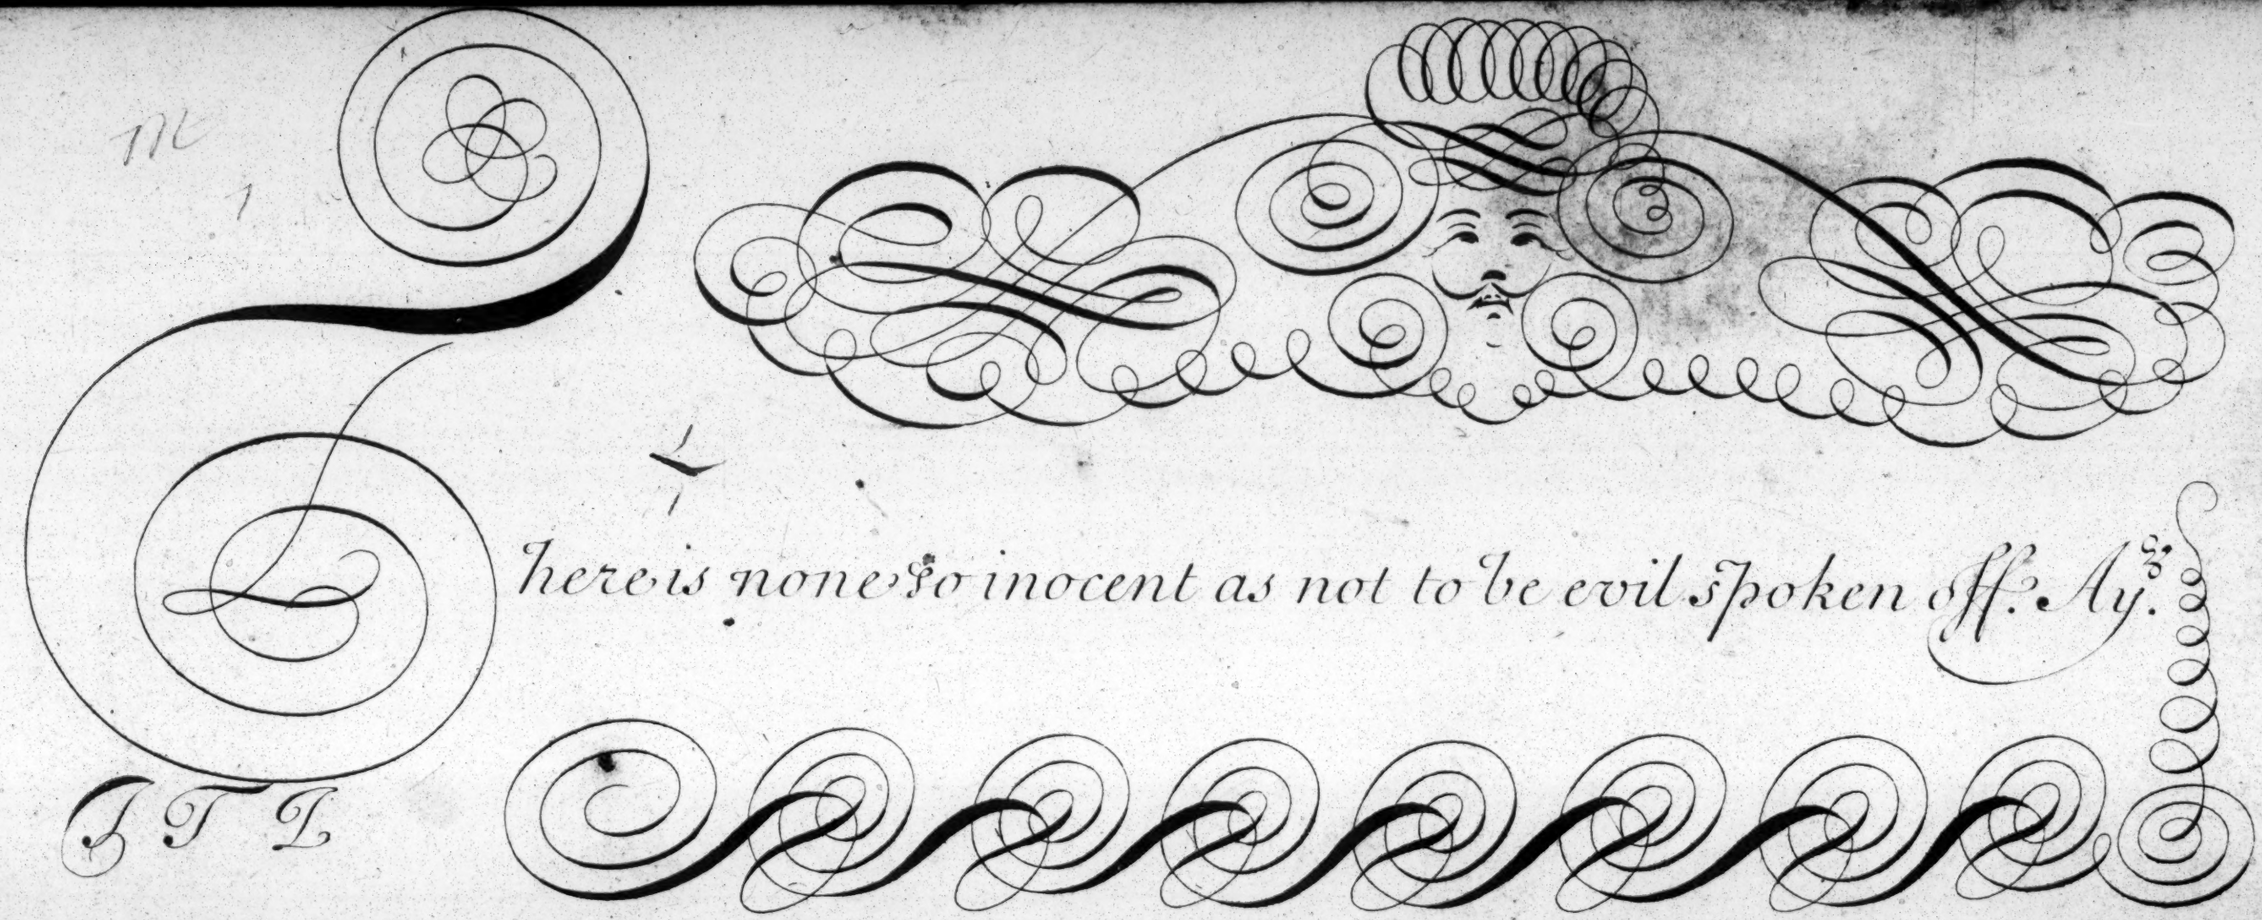
222

Received the 15 of August 1692 of Mr Edward Grimstone £ 372

R R R



I am yo.r faithfull fr.d & most obliged humble Serv.t J. Ayres.
I S



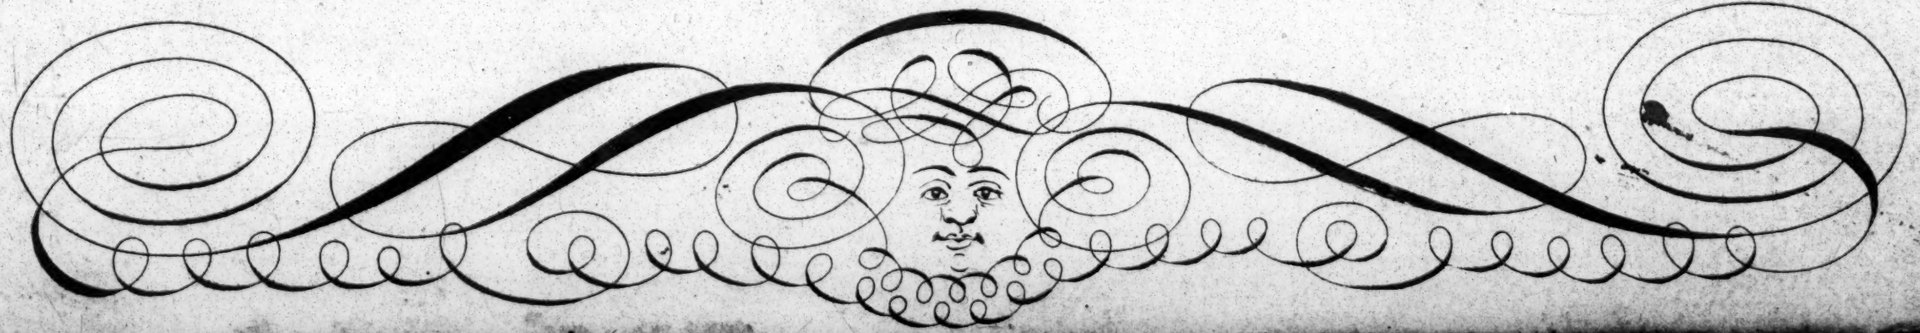
There is none so inocent as not to be evil spoken off. Ay.
J T L

Vain and momentary are all sublunary enjoyments. Anno 92
V.V.V.

Wine intemperately received impaireth Man in body purse & Credit
W W

Xenophon esteemed him fortunate y^t had both wealth & wisdō.

XX.



Your own Errors should teach you more wisdom y^n all precepts

yyy